the history of the subcontinent from 712 to 1947. He also explains the origins of modern ethnic groups. Approximately 400-500 million people lived in India before the Indo-Aryan tribes appeared there. Even today, you can still find members of these tribes in India (especially in remote areas). These tribes can be safely ranked among the most ancient tribes in the world. Despite the fact that they speak different dialects, they have very similar culture and customs. Despite the fact that today, they do not have much influence
