I bought one of those codes remover software for $25. I could get the codes off but later on the vehicle would beep twice then turn off. Over and over and over again I heard it beep and then the key would turn off for good. $2500 later and Immodo now is the only software that has worked for me. I bought it and use it every day. - You don't need to pay to get your vehicle fixed! - The quality of the Immodo software and its support are both excellent, and the price is very reasonable. - I absolutely love using Immodo and am 100% happy with it and its product. - The software works perfectly. - These immode off tools are common in all countries, most of them are working and easy to use. - Immodis codes can be decoded and re-encoded, including keys changing, make and model codes, and many other parts replaced. More data can be collected by purchase the software. You can get new codes for your car or a new immobiliser. - Immodogenerate brand new key for your car with the on the spot key manufactory code. - It can help you find your original keys. - The Immodocode is especially developed for car electronics. - Immobilecode will let you hack the code of your car.
