This is software that gives you the opportunity to turn your imagination into reality. It is such a powerful tool that is used by many. I want you to know that my kids and I used it in our mainstream teaching. Until now, I am grateful to fate that I had the time and necessary knowledge in order to take part in its creation. You must remember that one of the professional teaching methods is "experience". In childhood, we all must learn to "feel" objects. This teaching method implies that children should not only take part in the project, but also be immersed in the material, speak and feel. This is a complex process that takes you out of the "vicious circle" state. But in the future, it plays a key role in our lives. Research has shown that having the skills and experiences we acquire in childhood helps us develop all other skills and stay involved in all the activities of our lives, even when we leave school or university. I hope you will say that this is just fantastic. Or you say, how could I not know this? My experience says otherwise. Today, I can share with you information that will help you develop better and more effective methods for learning the technologies now available for your education, as well as give you tips on how to use this method for your children. My first memory of my earliest years is working on a project that was related to my passion for computers. I was still too young when we got a call from the telecommunications company and were told that their equipment had stopped working. The computer specialists of the company came to my house and offered their help. And I thought, "It's great if these guys think they can help me. I was looking forward to this moment. I can trust them. They have something that I don't have." After they caught me at work, they started telling me about things that were completely new to me, like computer graphics and multimedia, which were something completely new to them. I remember that day because it was warm and sunny. One of us was wearing a bright red suit and a hardhat, so I thought he was a real astronaut. I was interested to know how they work and what is the purpose of their work. But the moment they asked me to take off my hazmat suit, I knew they couldn't do it. They were just going to scatter me around the room and then go about their business. I realized how much I was interested and I knew th
