A: You can try to completely remove the latest version of Adobe Media Encoder from your computer (or update it to an older version like CC2014). To remove it completely from your computer, using your computer's start menu (Windows 7/8/10), go to All Programs > Adobe > Adobe Media Encoder. Then, select "Uninstall" and remove it. Once it's uninstalled, remove the Acrobat/Reader/Writer patch files (Adobe Reader/Acrobat/Adobe Reader Installer.exe). Q: React Native: ListView and CustomCell on same screen So I have a React Native app built in RN 0.43.
