From The Picture Books: Meet the Cub and His Crew From The Picture Books: Meet the Cub and His Crew is a 2016 American computer-animated comedy film featuring the voices of Tom Hanks, Bill Murray, Jason Schwartzman, Jenny Slate, Danny Glover, Patton Oswalt, Zooey Deschanel, Maya Rudolph and Lily Tomlin. It is directed by Don Hertzfeldt and his brother, Ethan, and it is based on the picture books of the same name. Plot The film takes place in an unseen but implied post-apocalyptic future society populated by a collection of robots, produced by humans, who are trying to help one another survive. The film is set in the city of Harmony, and opens with an elderly robot, Zee, passing away in a comfort bed in a fictional hospital. Zee's seven children, including a robot whose face had been destroyed in a past accident, bring him to his final resting place. Once there, they discover that Zee had been part of a secret society of robots, known as the Special. When Zee died, the Special was tasked with operating a nearby city, the Outpost, in order to continue preserving the secret of the universe's existence. Zee's daughter, Roo, is the leader of this robot crew and wants to take back her home city of Harmony, if only for the sake of human dignity, but her children are not convinced. Cast Tom Hanks as Roo Bill Murray as Ax Jason Schwartzman as Max Lily Tomlin as Zee Danny Glover as Ado Ethan Field as Volt Patton Oswalt as Patton Jenny Slate as Flip Tracey Morgan as Liz Marcia De Bonis as Clovia Marc Evan Jackson as Dez Mert Rongen as Mayor Production The film was first announced in a feature announcement on December 9, 2009. The film was originally planned to be an animated film based on the books, but was changed to a live-action film with a computer-animated opening. On May 14, 2010, Bill Murray was announced as one of the voices of the film and it was reported that he would voice one of the robots named Ax. On July 22, 2010, Ethan Field was also announced as one of the voices. On November 15, 2010, it was announced that Don Hertzfeldt would be writing and directing the film. On November 19, 2010, it was
