Online mode FIFA Ultimate Team FIFA Ultimate Team is an online mode of the FIFA series that allows players to assemble their own team of players with an emphasis on attributes and buying new FIFA coins, which can be transferred to the players' account. Players can set their preferred price for players, making the game more like reality. There are several other methods of obtaining players in FIFA Ultimate Team: Crafting: Players are created through a combination of random attributes, meaning players cannot be related to each other. My Player: Players can be "crafted" with an investment based on the player's popularity and currency. My Club: Players can be "crafted" with a transfer fee and a bond to create a deeper investment. Free Agents: Players can be obtained for free when they become available as a registered free agent. This is useful for obtaining players that are "silent" (free-to-register) and are therefore not readily available to buy in any other manner. Players in this category are expected to not have long-term appeal since they are not registered with a club and are available to all teams. This offers players some of the unique rewards of trading in FIFA Ultimate Team, such as transfer bonuses and unlocks.
