“Our goal with FIFA is to create a football game that is easy to learn and enjoy. Often we take what is seen as just a gameplay element or a stat, and re-evaluate it to make it more entertaining,” says Andrew Brough, Gameplay Engineer for FIFA. “We're trying to infuse as much “on the pitch” realism as possible into our game.”

MOTION CAPTURE SYSTEM Fans will notice that players' movements during FIFA 22 are more fluid and natural-looking. Players are able to use their complete range of movement and execute simple gestures and body punches without holding down any buttons. Players' bodies look and move more like real players than ever before. In addition, you will now be able to carry out pressing movements, arm-traps and body punches more quickly than ever before. The controlled speed of these actions provides an intuitive and responsive feel for your players in-game, while ensuring you deliver the best pacing for your action-packed matches.

REF BEHAVIOR The team has evolved the ref behaviour in FIFA 22 to be more human, responding appropriately to the many scenarios within a match. For example, refs can interact with players to offer advice and suggestions. In addition, refs can call a player out and alter the game if they believe that their conduct is not acceptable. This ensures that more of the refereeing decisions in FIFA 22 are heavily weighted on the game outcome. BOOSTERS A Boost can be used to affect a team or a player in a game. For example, a Boost can help you to get your best player's movement into the action. You can also choose to open a Boost and keep it open. This allows you to use a Boost as a toggle tool for your team. A Boost can be used to help you play your team as you would like.

SEASON OFF THE PAGE The player and team attributes are more consistent compared to seasons past, and more important stats are displayed in the player profiles. Players now have full details of their current contract, such as performance levels, salary and bonuses. The "Age" stat now shows the age of a player in years, so you can see how old your players are compared to their real life age. The new "Endangered" stat has been added to help the players with updates, including the FIFA Ultimate Team 2.0 update. FUT 2.0 allows you to create endless possibilities with cards from all over the world and brings full customisation to the game. The in-depth Champions League experience now lets you play a full 10-match Champions League campaign and manage one of the many teams from across Europe. FUT Champions features a new manager mode, revised user interface, and new goalkeepers, tactics and formations, allowing you to create, manage and play like a manager. No two leagues are the same. FIFA 20's updated Look editor and revamped graphics will allow you to see the world in more detail, including all 200+ clubs and 64,000+ players. FIFA 20's new free-kick system rewards celebration ability and puts emphasis on skill and accuracy. Let your skill be judged in the new Pick-X system. Under Pick-X, you can let the computer make a decision on who takes the free kick. It's only the computer that decides, so you have no risk in putting your foot on the ball. Now defenders must think twice before jumping up to defend. The Women's World Cup returns with more teams and more ways to compete. Up to 32 teams from around the world will represent the respective confederations in FIFA 20. FIFA 20 introduces Women's competition, including a new and improved Player Career. FIFA Ultimate Team 2.0 - The Ultimate Team community has grown immensely over the years. And it's the same with FUT. FUT introduced new features such as the My Player and Football Club modes; however, these features suffered from an absence of player data. The Ultimate Team 2.0 update delivers a big step forward and delves deeper than ever before into the subject of player data. With Ultimate Team 2.0, you will see player data that is right down to the player's hair colour and age. You will also get to have a real say in the data you see by making more of a difference during your season, looking at say, squad data, transfer

What's new in Fifa 22:

- Intuitive Behaviour Controls - Get on the ball in new ways. More dribbles on the beat. More smooth lunges. Better balance of speed and agility. Multiple approach angles. Off the ball dribbling - natural first touch controls. All in an easy to use way.
- Protect the Ball - Experience the new AI protecting the ball better this season. Players will use multiple patterns to protect the ball. Short and long passes will be smarter. They'll also control their composure better in the final third to play their game.
- Dynamic Atmospheres - Watch as the ball flies into the mouth of a beast, or bounce off a wall into an open goal. EA SPORTS has improved the game's stadiums with dynamic effects, scented environments and more to give you the sights, sounds and atmosphere of the game.
- Dynamic Player Attributes - Now athletes can be described by their personality and fitness more than before. And they'll be more likely to make runs down the wing and flick on a through ball when asked to.
- Network Performance - Player behaviour, camera and character placement are adjusted to match the conditions and interaction style of the crowded pitch. Players will no longer 'run' or 'jump' awkwardly, but rather move naturally, becoming more accurate on their target and predictive of the next pass.

- True-To-Life Player Traits - Behaviour, visual separation, run-and-glide attributes, speed, speed of thought & decision-making. Players will be more decisive on the ball and will use the entire width of the pitch to probe. Make the correct run and awareness will be boosted.
